Lamontite & ABC0® Large Size Compression Fittings

Our range of ABC0® Large Size Compression fittings offers the highest quality large size compression fittings available on the market today. Designed and made entirely in the UK the ABC0® range is an evolution of the large size Lamontite range that has been the industry leader for many years. We offer the full range of tees, couplings, and male and female connectors and adaptors as well as several unique products such as our Imperial to metric couplings which allow connections to Imperial 3 inch and 4 inch pipes. We also have Gatevalves in 67mm, 76mm and 108mm and stopcocks in 67mm and 76mm.
